

Aftonkata of White and Bob: re Aboriginal title

Indians take view: Horro's judgment stands as the authoritative expression of the law.

but

Dracon & Baker: (Vancouver County Court)

- says no aboriginal title proven Royal Proclamation doesn't apply.

to be appealed? No - Berger too busy

Also - Fisher's rights have been taken away, because Federal

Coguetlam Williams } both lost (no treaty) [Newspaper

Indians
object

Nishga Statement of Claim now before BC Supr. Ct may settle it for - aboriginal title royal proclamation claim a declaration that their aboriginal title has never been lawfully extinguished

So some support on courts Courts may decide the question (In any event, Indians maintain as historical fact that aboriginal title remains.)
