2 part captions

- 1) straight explanation
- 2) my hunches and speculations

156 The ancient conflict between symbols of containment and liberation 236 In psychological terms, the mask transforms its wearer into an archetypal image (Zurkster) ... invented the necessary contingency of death.

Our women are the hardest things we have to give.

Our competition for them gets in the way of other things, worldly things

How does the situation of 'too many girl friends' work out?
You lose them, and it hurts

Residue of Time

With such time depth, with such a concentrated residue of time, we do have sequences of sequencing
a looking in, a growing introspection

262 --- to break the mirror of life so that we may look being in the face ---

The usage seems to be

: yes, it's a labret, but what does labret mean?

(a statement of symbolic meaning

∴ of analogous meanings

: yes, it's a club, but what is all that really about?

a bowl is an everything-mixer in short, a cunt (seal) (frog)

Rattlesnake can eat things bigger than itself a mouth-mouth that can eat the mouth a cunt you can crawl back up back to the womb, by logical steps don't go forward, out, to death^{after-life} do go backward, in, to before-birth } they are the same

I wish I had never been born, by logical steps

Strayed bowl is a cunt with a head at each end in shorthand, Edenchaw's frog is Raven's Frog die in Collicon comfort owl

Skene's club is the opposite, a 2 ended phallus, a double dildo both-ended phallus

self-swallowing cunt } in short, Frog

The self-fucking phallus (that is) the self-swallowing vagina penetrating eating and I'll show

Bear does not know his rear end is Beaver But what Frog doesn't know is that she is empty (just having swallowed herself)

You never see Frog on a stone club (until CE) She's the female version Only CE put her (gunning), as the 'head' of a "lotempole".

Tail wagging dog?
which is the handle, which the blade?
(the secret of the stone clubs is that you hold it reversed, like a raven rattle - upside down
- bassackwards

I am you. That is you

The rattlesnake in the Victoria rose garden
The serpent in the garden of Eden

A virtual entity

One ingredient of virtualness is time
The other is (the ^{virtual} opposite) [wish?]

The virtual eye (salamander head)
" self-seeing eye (northern lights)

The most generalized process is virtualization
It is a volitional process
The basic volition is the wish

I wish for that which I cannot have I idealize to the divine wish
The divine wish is unattainable
That is the divine pain

That love cannot be demanded, it can only be given
It has to come as a by-product

The crowning image of a pile dower a metaphorical restatement of "pile dower" relating it to a more generic metaphor a more general principle like dogfish

Dogfish is the very image of a pile dower

The virtual image is a candle flame a fire, a flame

Fire is joyful virtualness being, burning warming changing consuming

Spending is paying back Lighting is paying back Giving back

Light is virtualness the virtualness of flame the state of dying in living the joy of willingness to die

Burn!

Be a great fire
Warming, lighting
Light the bus-side Light the arrow flight
Light the way to the river Spend
yourself.
Shed your light

All light is giving itself

I will give you my eyes my light my sight

Give it all back That's what wood does when it burns
Wood has to give it all back
The sun has to give it all back I have to give it all back in my sight

I look

I see

But it's not me

I guess that proves I'm really here.

Labret: generalization about speech (balance, reciprocity).

What's it: the further generalization not speech alone about all things, all acts perfect reciprocity in all acts dream-music comic reciprocity

dream-dance

Shape of Time

all the way spirit-quest. body's end there's nothing further just the other way:
 dream-way generalized
 the perfect canoe what's it Copper
 One both hand eye

head = body [as mind-body duality]

Flame is vestral image light is giving itself

Give it all back

That is what wood does
when it burns

It would be comforting to think that I am getting help from somebody who lived back there, long ago.
But now I know there's nobody there but me.

That which one has just done to the other is just about to be done by the other to the one

I am the giver and me the receiver

Threshold pun is a 'neither'?

Multiple pun is a 'both'?

Ritual Symbolism

All clubs are phallic but not all are phalliciform
All bowls = vulvic " " " " vulviform

Kamloops bowl achieves impossible: a phalliciform bowl Pile driver " " " " a phalliciform mouth

Wreath club: phalliciform - vulviform club Katchikan hammer is a vulviform hammer

Stirrup is a vulvic (not vulviform) handle, phallic end phallic-phalliciform club with owl =  - vulvic-vulviform bowl with owls a 'bowl in head' is a phallic bowl

The eye is a vulviform thing

Turtle is ♀

Yorishiko: a hammer that is a S.H.F.B. opposite of Slave Killer

Reckitt Image: male strength is mother and child }

A S.H.F.B. (mother & child) is a phallus. ∴ contains semen (life)

~~2 2~~

"Self-eating" - 2 snakes on back
- Snake on breast
- head-on-mouth (eating human)

"hawk" on front is self-eating (a beak and mouth both eating each other)

Owls eat snakes?

snake = snake
snake human hawk = "to itself"

They are all the same, in the eyes

If a rattlesnake eats itself, is it food or is it poison?

Food : poison :: life : death

Rattlesnake vagina ↔ sharpened tool of life impaling stick

Self-swallowing snake?

If ambiguity swallows ambiguity does it create order?

Life swallows itself and brings forth death (shit) so why can't

Death swallow itself and bring forth life?

Inanimate (stone) swallow itself and bring forth animate?

Stone swallow itself and create life

Death " " " " " "

The Ultimate Black Hole - - -

The logic of life is predicated on death

Death dies, creating life

Enter but

Grasper grasped

Mouth swallowed

Prever pierced

Killer, killed

Death-Bringer itself comes to life (Club)

Desperate logic

(at least it's worth a try)

Death, swallow thyself

Death, fuck thyself

Death, kill thyself

Death, transform thyself

Death, live thyself

Death Club

Destroyer destroyed (= created) (= life)

Death on the handle } really its opposite Death on the blade }

Living kills

it is an exercise in seeing

An art show should be a work of art

Inphalible Lule

What is metaphor?

it is likeness turned opposite

so that it isn't, at least, that.

Sex is the bonus

the prize in the game

a by-product to the victor--- a prize

a trophy

a cup

the Stanley Cup

the Holy Grail

a guise

} a vessel

In real life you don't get trophies but you do get sex

There are phallic $\therefore$ sexual, but not simply phallic, $\therefore$ equations

There are magic $\therefore$ ultimate

If one works with these concepts, and given: one, straight, linear

One comes to sympathize with the man trying to make an ultimate club

What is ultimate-phallic? Not ultimately large, Stone, $\therefore$ ult hard.
Calls into necessity its opposite Having just penetrated the ultimate vulva?

How to show that? without ending in zero, no club at all Compromise 1) phallic at one end, mouth at the other has just happened (and that penis has teeth)

Compromise 1) Kingfisher: phallic handle: bird with by enough beak at other — that's Raven has just happened

Compromise 3 Surfscoter: phallic at one end: bird which is metaphor for vulva — and vulva

————: self-swallowing mouth is the swallowed penis

= self swallowed penis

= frog same conclusion as for mortar frog is OK for mortar, but not for club or Can be shown "from inside" i.e. emerging from vulva both going same way!

or Phallic at both ends with a symbol of double reversal between like owl — mediator of life & death lives in world of life & of death dead end small live end big or Death head — a contradiction in terms

head = life = phallic shown dead!

Club that is also a dagger death that is also life
