7. A house site owned by Sqaot, chief of the Masset-Inlet Gitans (E13a [aa] ).

8. A house site only belonging to "the child" (NanEas) of "the Gitans of the west coast" (E20).

Memorials

In front of the last houses, towards the point are a number of mortuaries of several types.

AX. A unique double mortuary with a third post in the centre (plate ) carved to represent the body of a bear. The front plaque, missing in the photographs, undoubtedly depicted the head of the bear.

BX. Plain double mortuaries.

CX.

DX.

EX. A simple mortuary post with a crest figure on top. The figure is so overgrown with moss that it cannot be identified.
