wig.a'ix

Mrs Williams

From git'ang.a'su village near Bear Lake Have same adaox as kuhada'q (git'omaks) Edward Clark, (close relative) wig.a'ix (Daniel wig.a'ix) now lives at Hazelton

Chas Martin

From lax git'ang.a'sx "on people of wild rice" an old valley up the Skeena. Some cache holes may still be seen; the flat is still open. An older village than tom lax a'mot (they never went to Tamlaham).

Relatives: 'ni's, galdə use same names
: g.uxhada'ku, git'omaks is exactly same family. Use same names & ayuks : gwe'', gitwinkcit They also come from git'ang.a'sx "They want me to move these as they are out of men and women"

Once the chief of this house died and two people wanted to replace him. They settled it by giving the chieftainship to one man (wig.a'ix) and the name gwixszdzan to the other (the former chiefs name)
